PATA Annual Summit 2016

Join us at the PATA Annual Summit 2016, generously hosted by the Guam Visitors Bureau (GVB) in Guam, USA. A destination rich in culture and charm situated in the vast expanse of the Pacific Ocean, also known as 'the blue continent'. The 4-day event brings together thought leaders and industry professionals from around the world in an effort to drive the sustainable growth, value and quality of travel and tourism in the Asia Pacific region.

This year PATA, in partnership with the UNWTO, will be holding a half-day PATA/UNWTO Ministerial Debate on Pacific Island Tourism. Those registered for the conference will receive complimentary access to this high-level meeting, as well as other networking events.

GUAM, USA

Guam is a US island territory located in the heart of the Pacific Ocean, just a short plane ride away from some of Asia's main cities. This captivating island paradise is distinguished by its tropical beaches, Chamorro villages and ancient latte stones.

Tumon Bay is Guam's tourism and economic hub, home to luxury stores, nightclubs and one of the longest tunnel aquariums in the world. At the northernmost tip of Guam is Ritidian Point, a national wildlife refuge and the site of one of the island's most pristine sandy beaches. Two Lovers Point - a startling cliff line in Northern Guam - overlooks the glimmering Philippine Sea and is the setting of an ancient Chamorro legend.
