3. PATA Chapter - refers to an independent group of members of PATA and local travel & tourism related businesses or individuals who form a Chapter under the following bylaw guideline.

4. Chapter Members - refers to all Members of the Chapter.

5. PATA Student Chapter - PATA Student Chapter refers to a group of students who are interested in Travel & Tourism and studying at a University which is a PATA International member. Except upon approval of PATA headquarters, the Student Chapter shall limit its membership to student of the University of such Student Chapter.

Pacific Asia Travel Association (PATA)

www.PATA.org

The Pacific Asia Travel Association (PATA) is a membership association acting as a catalyst for the responsible development of the Asia Pacific travel and tourism industry.

In partnership with PATA’S private and public sector members, we enhance the sustainable growth, value and quality of travel and tourism to, from and within the region.

Since 1951 PATA has led from the front as the leading voice and authority on travel and tourism in the Asia Pacific region.

- In partnership with private and public sector members, PATA enhances the sustainable growth, value and quality of travel and tourism to-from-and-within, the region.

- The Association provides leadership to individual and collective basis to over 80 government, state and city tourism bodies; nearly 50 international airlines, airports and cruise lines and many hundreds of travel industry companies across the Asia Pacific region and beyond.
• PATA’s Strategic Intelligence Centre (SIC) offers unrivalled data and insights including Asia Pacific inbound and outbound statistics, analyses and forecasts as well as in-depth reports on strategic tourism markets

• PATA’s events create millions of dollars of new business each year for its members

• Thousands of travel professionals belong to 41 active PATA chapters worldwide and participate in a wide range of PATA and industry events.

• The PATA Foundation contributes to the sustainable and responsible development of travel and tourism in Asia Pacific through the protection of the environment, the conservation of heritage and support for education.

Bylaws

PATA Student Chapters are established throughout the world in Universities that are currently PATA International members.

Participation in Student Chapter affairs occurs at the local and personal levels, Student Chapter activities are generally designed to benefit student members through locally organized travel and tourism educational programs, community projects, and discussions that deal with tourism affairs or changes within the tourism business environment.

Objectives

a. To actively support and contribute to PATA’s mission and goals.

b. To promote and develop PATA Student Chapter membership during the students’ study time at the Student Chapter level and after graduation, as PATA Young Tourism Professionals (YTP).

c. To actively encourage registered and potential student chapter members participation in all PATA’s activities and events.

d. To foster closer working relationships, cooperation, business and networking opportunities with PATA members, PATA chapters and especially peer-level student chapter members at other PATA member universities.

e. To act as the voice of PATA in the university to help position, promote and protect Asia Pacific travel and tourism via sustainable, economic, cultural and environmental methods.

f. To organize activities, events and opportunities to support the promotion of PATA destinations.

g. To embrace and implement through its Student Chapter membership the PATA’s Charter of Sustainability and Corporate Social Responsibility.
Membership Benefits

PATA assists the Student Chapters in the attainment of the following objectives through:

- a) Student Chapter Handbook: This handbook provides guidelines for Student Chapter leaders in the day-to-day administration of PATA Student Chapters.

- b) Educational Programs: These may be organised by PATA, PATA Members, PATA Chapters and Student Chapters worldwide to keep members/students up-to-date with current marketing, management and information techniques. Varying from half-day seminars to two-day workshops, such educational programs may deal with subjects ranging from destination and product updates to environmental or community initiatives.

- c) Study Tours/Workshops: Study Tours/Workshops to PATA destinations may be conducted by PATA Chapters to provide students with first-hand experience of services and products and new tourism developments.

- d) Student Scholarships: PATA, through the PATA Foundation and PATA Chapters may raise funds to provide scholarships for qualified students to enroll in local colleges and universities offering studies in travel industry and hospitality management programs. These scholarships may apply to PATA-sponsored programs, student-industry internships, and exchange programs for students and occasionally, tourism faculty, sponsored by cooperating chapters.

- e) Tourism Awareness/Heritage Programs: These are conducted by PATA Chapters and Student Chapters to create public awareness within local communities of the importance of tourism in national development and the importance of preserving the symbolic relationship between national heritage and tourism.

Name, Area & Logo
